The National Rental Affordability Scheme

Tenant Demographic Assessment and Consent Form

When to use this form

This is an approved form under section 44 of the National Rental Affordability Scheme Regulations 2020. This form needs to be completed by you as the tenant and the approved participant so that the Department of Social Services (the department) can assess tenant eligibility for the National Rental Affordability Scheme (NRAS). The approved participant must provide a tenant consent form for each tenant of the dwelling.

This form requests information about you and the approved rental dwelling which includes:

- the length of the lease;
- the number and ages of occupants residing in or that will reside in the dwelling;
- sources and details of income earned (noting that the approved participant will need supporting evidence);
- the amount of rent that will be charged.

Approved participants are required to provide this form to prospective tenants. Each prospective tenant who is an adult must complete and sign this form prior to entering into any lease or rental agreement for an NRAS approved rental dwelling.

Why is information collected?

Information about you, and your household, is collected in this form to confirm your eligibility to rent an NRAS property. It may be used to better direct resources to areas of need and improve its services. The information can also be provided to state or territory governments for the same purpose.

Tenant's consent to give information

By completing and signing this form you agree to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information (the information contained in this form) by the department for the purposes of NRAS. If you do not agree, this may affect your tenancy.

You can ask your approved participant to give you a copy of the information that they have provided to the department.

Protection of information

The approved participant and the department, as the persons responsible for collecting the information in this form, are required to observe the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act 1988. This means that this form must:

- tell you why the information is needed (i.e. to enable the department to assess your eligibility to lease an NRAS property and to provide additional information for assessing the rental eligibility status);
- tell you what will happen to your information and who it will be given to (i.e. the approved participant will provide the information to the department and the department may give the information to any other parties the department determines appropriate to achieve the objectives of the Scheme).

In addition, the approved participant and the department must:

- store the information securely;
- only use the information for the purpose it was obtained;
- only pass your information to other parties when the law allows or requires it.

The department sometimes provides information about people who are accessing Australian Government funded services to other Government departments and researchers. When this happens, only limited information is made available, and the department removes all details that could identify you, e.g. your names and your employer's name.

Any other Australian Government departments, state and territory governments and Australian researchers who are given access to the information must also observe the Australian Privacy Principles (or equivalent) when handling the information.

The Australian Privacy Commissioner can investigate allegations of improper collection, use and disclosure of personal information by Government departments.

For more information about how the department handles personal information please see the department's privacy policy at www.dss.gov.au/privacy-policy. The department's privacy policy contains information about how an individual can seek access to or correction of personal information held by the department. The policy also provides information about how an individual can make a privacy complaint.

Obligations of your approved participant/housing provider

The approved participant must verify that the gross annual income (income from all sources before tax is applied) of all occupants that reside in an NRAS approved rental dwelling is within the household eligibility threshold for your household type. Your income should be reviewed annually. The initial verification must be conducted by the approved participant prior to you entering into a lease or rental agreement for the dwelling.

Please note that you will cease to be an eligible tenant if your household's combined gross annual income exceeds the approved income threshold by 25 per cent or more in two consecutive eligibility years.

The approved participant must ensure that they comply at all times with the landlord, tenancy, building and health and safety laws of the state or territory and local government area in which the dwelling is located.

The approved participant must provide an NRAS approved rental dwelling at a rate at least 20 per cent below the assessed market rent of the property.

The approved participant may review the rent charged for your property in line with the landlord, tenancy and local government laws in your relevant state or territory. However, any increase in rent must ensure that each charge of rent for the dwelling is at least 20 per cent below the market value rent for the property.

The approved participant must keep and maintain all records used to verify your eligibility to lease an NRAS dwelling, methodology for determining market rent value and rent charged, and information and details specifically requested by the department for five years.
